

the ultimate journey

Explore Truth • Discover Love • Walk In Freedom

Goodbye to Self-Life Example #3

Dear Self-Life:

I must say goodbye to you because you must let Jesus live for you now. You've tried to live life, but didn't know how. You must let go of your life so you can grab onto the life of Jesus. You must stay buried in Christ so You can live in Him. You can't keep holding on to the world and what it has to offer you because you know what it has done to your life. You must stop glorifying your past and trying to convince yourself that you can return back to your old life when in reality you can't no matter how hard you tried. You must get out of the canoe of expectation and get into the canoe of reality. The life of self is no more because it is the life of Christ now. You are born again and that is how you must live. So I say goodbye Self-Life. Yes to the life of Christ.