

Fairy Tale - Stardust

Once upon a time there was a little sand dollar named Stardust. Stardust was born in the big ocean by Shell Island. She was a peaceful, happy shell. Her mother's name was Jaded and her father's name was Missing. She had a little brother named Whisper.

Stardust loved swimming in the ocean. The water was warm and there were lots of fish and coral. Stardust grew and got big enough to go to shell school. Her parents kept getting swept away by the tides so she had to keep switching schools and tidal pools to live in. Some of the small shells at school were nice. Some were not. She kept to herself and tried not to get in trouble. She made it thru to go to the big shell school of scholars.

When Stardust went to big school she had lots of friends. Stardust and her shell friends laughed and had lots of fun. They were on the dancing team and got to wear sparkles on their shells. They twirled around and jumped up and down in the sand and made the other shells laugh. This made Stardust feel important like she was belonging somewhere.

The boy sand dollars started noticing Stardust. She was very beautiful and had a perfect shape. The boys liked to look at her. Stardust fell in love with the most handsome shell in all the school. He fell in love with her too. She and CatchMe started meeting at the shallow pool to laugh and have fun together. Catch Me showed her poisonous fluids from spiny, sharp, dangerous sea urchins. Stardust knew it was wrong to partake in it. She did it anyway because she loved him. She also loved him enough to lose her virginity to him. Stardust was only 14.

Stardust was becoming adventurous and liked having fun more than going to Shell School. She would start getting into a lot of trouble with other shells. She partook in many different kinds of poisons and had to go away for a while. She went to shell prison. Stardust felt all alone. She had made many mistakes and was now paying for them. All of her friends would abandon her. Her family didn't love her very much anymore either. All alone she tried to pick her shell back up and keep trying to do better. She quit doing the poisons but was only holding on by a thread.

At one of Stardust's no poison meetings she met a handsome shell that fell head over heels for her. His name was Deceiver. He promised Stardust everything she could ever want or dream of if she would be his. Stardust's dreams of a wedding and beautiful home in the coral reef all came true. It would not be long though before Deceiver started showing his true colors. Stardust would turn 21. Deceiver and Stardust would swim to exotic ports in the ocean. Their life would seem perfect.

Stardust was very young and liked to have her way all the time. She and Deceiver started growing apart. Deceiver went to work and Stardust shopped. Deceiver started looking and playing with other female shells. He would pay for time with them. Stardust was heartbroken. Deceiver abandoned her. Her family lived in an ocean far, far way and she would again be all alone. She didn't know how to take care of herself. There would be a lot of lonely years after that.

Stardust moved off the oceans of the East Coast. There she would try to build a new life. Stardust had a good friend and they accidentally made a baby. Stardust was 25. She worked at the Shell Airport Under the Sea and she made poison drinks for happy fishes that were swimming to other ports. Her baby would grow and be born on June 9, 1995. Her babies name is Jamie, Little baby of a Big God. Jamie would be the most beautiful thing that Stardust would ever do. Jamie would bring love back into Stardust's heart. He also brought Stardust's family back together. They would raise little Jamie together for a little while.

Stardust would move many more times until she came back home. She would make poison drinks for several years so she could support little Jamie. She made lots of money and things were better for a while.

One day at the Seasick bar and grill a fish called Loserfer came and made eyes at Stardust. He was from the oceans of Italy and had a record in speed swimming. He liked to go for the gills. It turns out that Loserfer was a very bad fish. He partook in poisons from the sea that Stardust had never tried. She stayed true to her morals and when she found out about Loserfer's ways she kicked him to the dark, blackness of the ocean.

Stardust was filled with much rage. Shortly there after another male fish swam by. This one was quiet and stealthy. Stardust was still very angry about being lied to by Loserfer. She had had so many troubles. This new fish named Slim talked her into trying a new poison. This one made her feel very happy inside. It gave her lots of energy to do the things that she needed to do. She was very busy working and keeping up with her beautiful house.

Several years went by with Slim, Stardust and little Jamie. Stardust and Slim started slipping up and doing more poison. It started destroying their lives and Jamie, Little one of a Big God, started losing the spark in his eye.

Missing, Stardust's father, swam very fast into Stardust's life. He rescued her and Jamie from their broken home. Stardust was so very tired. Her body and mind has nothing left to give. Jaded, Stardust's mother tried to be sweet to her. Jaded had been praying for her for a long time along with lots of other fishes from the School of Christians. Big Fish with lots of Love met with Stardust in August 2003. Stardust accepted Jesus on that day. Her life would change from that very moment.

Two weeks after that Stardust found out she was pregnant with another little fish. Slim wanted to try to change and make a life back with them. Stardust was not sure. She and Slim had to see a Master fish to work things out. It would be very hard and take a long time. The little fish in Stardust's stomach was very feisty. He tickled her gills all the time. Stardust was afraid for her life and Jamie's. How would they make it? She was not sure about Slim. Too many bad things had happened.

Stardust put all her fears in her God. She kept her eyes on Him for all her needs. Little squirt was born and he was healthy. Stardust learned of the very powerful word "Grace". She named little squirt Grayson for that reason. God's grace and love would start to bless her family. The dark clouds of the big vast ocean would start to lift. It would be the hardest thing Stardust would ever do to keep her eyes on the Lord. Her love for Him is so great that she will keep swimming to the top of the sea to where the light shines bright with her babies and Slim. Lots of bad things happened to Stardust. God will heal the pain and in the end all of it will be worth it. She and her babies will be held in the hand of our Mighty, beautiful Lord and his son Jesus.
