Christ-Through-Me Identity Statement Example

Lord Jesus,

You are living your life in me and through me. You are my eyes to see as you see. You are my life to love as you love. I release you to love and relate through me in every situation, circumstance, and relationship. I release you to take me wherever you choose. My thoughts, words, and deeds are holy and acceptable in your sight.

As a Husband...

You made our life together a living miracle in the way You brought us together and in the life You have entrusted to us as husband and wife. You bless us with a wonderful family. Thank You that You bless, love, honor, and cherish my wife through me. I release You to minister to her heart when it breaks and hurts thorough me, others of Your choosing, and in ways I cannot imagine.

As a Dad...

Lord, thank you that You have a perfect and complete solution for every situation that each of my sons face. I rest in knowing that You are in control of each of their lives. I recognize Your presence in each of them and I release You to lead them into places where they can each receive the blessing that You have already chosen to provide for them. I release You to love and relate to each son through me. I give them as arrows in Your hand to follow Your plan for each to make You known in worlds I may never see.

As a Dad-In-Law...

Lord, thank You that You have a perfect plan for each of my daughters-in-law. I rest in knowing You have given me everything I need to fulfill Your expectations of me in these precious relationships. I recognize Your precious handiwork in each of them. I release You to lead them into places where they can each receive the blessing that You have already chosen to provide for them. I release You to love, encourage, and relate to each one through me.

As a Grandpa...

You continue to bless me beyond anything I could ever dream or imagine through my grandchildren. I rest in knowing that You give me everything I need to relate to so many both near and far. Thank you that You have a perfect and complete solution for every situation that each of my grandchildren face. I rest in knowing that You are in control of each of their lives. I recognize Your presence in each of them and I release You to lead them into knowing You intimately and to places and people where they can each receive the blessing that You have already chosen to provide for them.

As a Pastor...

Thank You Lord for the wonderful honor and privilege of pastoring Your people. I rest in knowing it is Your church and that I am thereby Your hand for as long as You choose. You are responsible to guide, direct, and build Your people. You are the One who gives us vision and purpose. Thank You that You already have a perfect plan to live through us to glorify the Father and to make disciples of lost and hurting people.
